

Airwaves May 2019

Hi << Test First Name >>

Welcome to the May edition of Airwaves - the bi-monthly e-newsletter of the Hang Gliding Federation of Australia.

In this edition:

- We are proud to acknowledge the recent success of paragliding pilot, Kari Ellis who won bronze in the Women's Superfinal at the 2018-19 Paragliding World Cup- held recently in Brazil.
- The Hang Gliding Federation of Australia invites all aviation enthusiasts to come support the AOPA Australian Junior Pilots display at the upcoming 'Wings Over Illawarra' Air show on May 4-5 – an exciting new youth program that encourages the younger generation to take flight.

SOARING TO SUCCESS: AUSTRALIAN FEMALE PILOT WINS BRONZE AT PARAGLIDING WORLD CUP

A Canberra paragliding pilot has flown sky high for Australia and women in her sport, coming third in the Women's Superfinal at the 2018-19 Paragliding World Cup, held recently in Brazil.

Kari Ellis, 37, who has been flying for 10 years and currently FAI World number 7 in the female category, is an incredible role model for women in sport – showcasing that skill, passion and perseverance can see you soaring to success.

ENCOURAGING THE YOUNGER GENERATION TO TAKE FLIGHT

The Hang Gliding Federation of Australia invites all aviation enthusiasts to come support the AOPA Australian Junior Pilots display at the upcoming 'Wings Over Illawarra' Air show on May 4-5 – an exciting new youth program that encourages the younger generation to take flight.

Held at the Illawarra Regional Airport, this exciting program, that the HGFA is a key sponsor of, aims to spark a passion within young aviation enthusiasts, while introducing them to the flying essentials. Junior pilots will be able to have easy access to digital aircraft simulations, friendly pilot mentors and even have their first flight experience.
