Passing of Kris Batt in a Paramotoring Accident

It is with great sadness that we announce the death of Kris Batt, a member of the HGFA's Paramotoring fraternity.

Kris died in an accident North of Moree, yesterday afternoon.

HGFA Operations and NSW Police Aviation investigators were immediately mobilised, and are now assisting Coronial authorities.

An investigation is now underway. Members will understand that more investigations are required before firm conclusions can be made. Upon completion of the investigation, the HGFA will prepare a report for the Coroner and continue our work to improve safety for all members.

Our thoughts and condolences are with Kris' family and his many gliding friends at this sad time.
